

Workshop Crew Member

Stewards of the Arts, INC (SOTA) is a faith-based nonprofit organization whose mission is to equip the youth to become faithful stewards of their God-given talents so that they may use them to honor God and serve others well. We do this by offering classes in various performing and visual arts areas.

SOTA is expanding our team of enthusiastic Workshop Crew Members to assist with the logistics of our #SOTASATURDAY workshops! Our Workshop Crew Members are responsible for providing assistance in a variety of areas such as:

- Registration
- Photo booth
- Merchandise
- Concessions
- Greeters
- Media

Approximate Time Required: 1-2 events bi-monthly

FYI: Although this is a volunteer position, we take great care of our team! We are also more than happy to provide sign off for community service hours!

Responsibilities:

- Attending meetings to discuss upcoming workshops
- Provide a fun and creative environment for students during the duration of the workshop.
- Assisting with workshop setup
- Assisting with registration process
- Providing support to volunteer instructors when needed
- Providing support to students as needed

Requirements:

- A servant's heart for the Lord
- High school diploma or equivalent (minimum)
- Experience working with the youth
- Excellent communication skills
- Energetic and authentic
- Ability to work within a team
- Able to pass a background check
